

Kenyan and Tanzanian Recoveries of Interest

Some very interesting recoveries have arisen over the last few years in the local Kenya and TZ fishing zones. Not just Billfish but Shark and more unusually Giant Trevally migrating reasonably large distances for a supposedly sedentary fish. Listed below are some of the recoveries with their journey indicated by the appropriate arrows in the map to the left.

1) This Black Marlin was tagged on the Rips. It was out for 1 year and 38 days and was recaptured off Pangani, TZ.

2) This Striped Marlin was tagged on the Rips. It was out for 37 days and was recaptured off Latham Island, TZ.

3) This Broadbill was tagged on the Rips. It was out for 3 year and 153 days and was recaptured off Southern TZ.

4) This Broadbill was tagged on the Rips. It was out for 165 days and was recaptured off Somalia.

5) This Sailfish was tagged off Malindi. It was out for 1 year and 254 days and was recaptured off Southern TZ.

6) This Giant Trevally was tagged in the Boiling Pot, retagged 10 days later still in the Boiling Pot and then recaptured 1 year and 28 days later off Pemba, TZ.

7) This Sailfish was tagged off Malindi. It was out for 120 days and was recaptured off Mafia Island, TZ.

8) The majority of local recaptures are fish that have been out for one or two years and are re-caught in the same local areas.
